

23RD ASSEMBLY OF THE STATES PARTIES TO THE ROME STATUTE
INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

THE FIGHT AGAINST ENFORCED DISAPPEARANCES: the role of International Criminal Justice

Thursday 5 December 2024, 08:30-09:45AM

Room Europe 1&2, World Forum, The Hague

Join us in discussing the specificities and need for prosecution of the crime of enforced disappearances.

Through the historical and legal links between enforced disappearances and International Criminal Justice, we will explore the challenges of documenting and prosecuting such crimes. The panel will provide insights on the role of national and international courts as well as civil society and victims.

PROGRAMME

INTRODUCTORY REMARKS

Sandrine Barbier, Deputy Director of legal affairs, ministry of Europe and Foreign affairs

MODERATOR

Olivier de Frouville, President of the United Nations Committee on Enforced
Disappearances, Director of the Paris Human Rights Center, Paris-Panthéon-Assas University

PANEL

Eugénie Vendroux, PhD student, Paris Human Rights Center, Paris-Panthéon-Assas University

Andreas Kleiser, Director for Policy and Cooperation, International Commission on Missing Persons

Amra Begić Fazlić, Deputy Director, Memorial Center Srebrenica-Potocari

Simon Laws, Victims' Counsel, Kosovo Specialist Chambers

Adelaïde Dembele, International Investigative Judge, Special Criminal Court

Viktoria Litvinova, Deputy Prosecutor General, Ukraine

After interventions from the speakers, the floor will be opened for questions.

- A light breakfast will be provided -

Event co-sponsored by France and Luxembourg, co-hosted by International Commission on Missing Persons and the Paris Human Rights Center (CRDH-Paris-Panthéon-Assas University)